

ODDFELLOWS

On the Park

Oddfellows On The Park is explicitly and unapologetically about fun, theatre and good times together.

Our cocktails are all about the ingredient - you'll see home-infused spirits, plenty of our mixologist's inspired creations and an 'odd' take on the classics. Non-alcoholic cocktails are equally delicious.

With our wine selection, we've taken care to reach out to family owned vineyards and artisan producers. We will have some fabulous wines available by the glass, the carafe and of course the bottle - we are sure you'll enjoy trying these...

Because no great story starts with a salad!

SPARKLING BY THE GLASS

We are delighted to offer Perrier-Jouët as our Grand Marque. In 1810, Pierre-Nicolas Perrier married Adèle Jouët, Perrier-Jouët was born. After just one year, the newly-weds began producing champagne. Adèle focused on vineyards and wine-making; Pierre Nicolas focused on sales and marketing. Shipments to Great Britain began in 1815.

	125ML	HALF BTL	FULL BTL
NV Astoria Lounge	£7.50		£35
NV Perrier-Jouët, Grand Brut	£14	£40	£65

Astoria Galie Prosecco Di Treviso Extra Dry is delightfully aromatic, with fine floral notes on the bouquet. The clean, crisp palate has just a faint hint of richness (Astoria Galie's classification is Extra Dry, just a touch riper than Brut) to help carry the refined fruit flavours and the delicious, mouthwatering finish.

The composition of Perrier-Jouët Grand Brut is 40% based on the vinosity and the structures of Pinot Noir from the grands crus and premiers crus of the Mailly, Verzy, Aÿ and Rilly - la Montagne terroirs, 40% Meunier and 20% of Chardonnay.

COCKTAILS MADE FOR YOUR PLEASURE

MARTINI

By 1922, the Martini reached its most recognisable form, where London Dry Gin and Vermouth are combined at the ratio of 2:1, stirred in a mixing glass with ice with optional additions of orange or aromatic bitters and finally strained into a chilled Martini glass. Over time the traditional garnish developed to the drinker's choice of green olive or a twist of lemon peel.

GIN

Gin has a rich history. Dubbed "Mother's ruin" in 18th century London. It was the drink of the poor, to the drink symbolic of the British Empire. But more than just marking key moments in British history, the spirit has a huge cultural significance, appearing in poetry, novels and even inspiring some of the most famous lines in cinema:

"Of all the Gin joints, in all the towns, in all the world, she walks into mine,"
Casablanca

ISLANDS

There are nearly 800 islands scattered off Scotland's jagged coastline, of which only a few are inhabited. Excluding the whisky hotspot of Islay, islands of Arran, Mull, Jura, Skye, Lewis and Orkney are home to an eclectic mix of styles, from light citrus to full-on peat smoke.

Isle of Jura 10 year old	£4.50
Highland Park 12 year old	£5.50
Arran Port Cask Finish	£7.50

LOWLANDS

This is the home of the blend, and of the large quantities of grain whisky which result from its foundation - but a few producers keep up the trademark light and grassy Lowland malt style.

Glenkinchie 12 year old	£6.50
Auchentoshan American Oak	£12

SPEYSIDE

Speyside whisky sits in two camps. At one end of the spectrum lies the light, grassy 'lunch-time' whisky such as Glenlivet. At the other end lies the rich, sweet, shirried qualities of Macallan.

Lagavulin 16 year old	£8.50

IRISH WHISKEY

The Irish may have been the first distilleries in the British Isles and, for a brief period in the 19th century, Irish whiskey reigned supreme over its Scottish rival. Nikka From The Barrel	£7

AMERICAN WHISKEY

Whiskey is made all across America, from Washington to Virginia. From Tennessee whiskies to spicy rye and un-aged corn, the country uses a wide variety of grains in whiskey production.

COGNAC

Legend has it that in 1620, casks "forgotten" for several years on a wharf were discovered to contain Cognac brandy that had improved over the time it had been left in oak. The aging process revealed flavours and aromas that the usual near-immediate consumption of the spirit had never uncovered.

THE TEMPERANCE MOVEMENT

The temperance movement was popular in the mid-1800s. Establishing itself in Lancashire before spreading across the North West, the temperance movement was spearheaded by women. Men encouraged to take a pledge, signing a 'T' after their name to signal their support. This is thought to be the origin of the term 'T-Totaller'.
