have an input into how the operations within the hotel are run and which creative direction we take. Oddfellows On The Park is a beautiful restoration of a Victorian Hall – I was lucky enough to be involved in its conception and now I have the great privilege of looking after this property as we breathe new life into it.'

Jonathan Slater, Oddfellows Hotels said: 'Carlo has more than proved himself over the last two and a half years – so it was an easy decision to promote him to Hotel Manager at Oddfellows On The Park. He is an excellent operator with exacting standards.'

He added: 'I'm looking forward to continuing what has been an extremely successful working relationship as the Oddfellows family of hotels grows.'
