Oddfellows On The Park launches pooches menu on The Terrace

Oddfellows On The Park, set in the stunning 120 acres of Bruntwood Park, has launched a menu specifically designed for pampered pooches.

Dogs are welcomed on The Terrace at Oddfellows On The Park, where they can join their owners in a bite to eat with an option of handmade dog treats or doggy ice cream. Dog owners can even include their furry friends in a celebratory toast by treating them to a bottle of 'Pawsecco', a natural, herbal infused drink.

The independently-owned, design-led boutique hotel opened in 2017 and was the culmination of a fifteen-month careful restoration that has transformed Victorian mansion, Bruntwood Hall. It is now home to 22 bedrooms, The Galloping Major restaurant, The Stud Room bar, salon - The Pigsty and The Terrace - where dogs are welcome.

Paul Cookson, General Manager of Oddfellows Hotels said: 'Our setting, in the heart of leafy Bruntwood Park, is heaven for dogs and dog walkers. There are acres and acres for dogs to run around and our Terrace is the perfect place to relax post-walk for coffee, lunch, afternoon tea or cocktails.'

He added: 'One of our loyal customers often requests afternoon tea on the terrace, so that she can be joined by her three dogs. Our pooches menu was a result of trying to make sure the dogs enjoyed the same level of treats as she does!'

Notes for Editors

Oddfellows On The Park is the sister hotel to Oddfellows, Chester (www.oddfellowschester.com). It is the only hotel in the UK outside of London to be welcomed into the global Design Hotels™ consortium, and sits alongside hotels like Soho Hotel in London and Gramercy Park Hotel in New York. Designed by Tim Groom Architects, with interiors by SpaceInvader, both Manchester based firms, guests will enjoy interesting design pieces throughout including a bike-chain chandelier that is inspired by the Bruntwood Park BMX track and lights up the grand staircase.

Flexible event spaces, the Parlor Bar and Parlor Rooms, are set on the park with direct access to the terrace. The Pigsty, a petite but perfectly formed salon de beauté, houses a relaxation area, two treatment rooms and a rasul mud room.

The hotel is open throughout the day and serves breakfast, lunches, afternoon tea and dinner.

Dogs are welcomed on The Terrace only.
